

Kid's Connection

The Newsletter of the Southington Public Library and Museum Children's Department

Check out the newest e-books for e-kids! There is something new in the Children's Department and on the library's website. We have added a collection of TumbleBooks. TumbleBooks are animated, talking, electronic picture books. They include popular books, life learning books and a limited number of books in a foreign language. You can access TumbleBooks by clicking the TumbleBooks icon on our home page or at one of our iMac game computers.

Afternoons with Lynn presents

It's a Surprise Party at Afternoons with Lynn on Tuesday April 11 at 4:00-4:45PM and the surprise is for YOU. Guess the mystery character we are honoring and win a prize!

Join us for lively games, food, fun and surprises. We promise you'll have a bang up good time! Register and receive your first clue. Ages 7-10.

Young Authors Program

Come and see this year's selection of books from our Strong School Young Authors Program on display now in the Children's Department.

New for this month, our first winner from the Derynoski Elementary school will also be on display. Congratulations to all our young authors!

Make Your Own Kite!

Just in time for the windy weather, we are giving all our patrons the opportunity to make their own kite. While supplies last, the library will provide each child one kite to decorate and take home. Ask the Children's Librarian for your kite & markers to decorate it with.

Hooked on Phonics & Hooked on Math

Please ask at the Children's Services Desk for the newest editions of Hooked on Phonics, Hooked on Math and Hooked on Phonics Master Reader.

March is National Crafts Month

Get crafty with our display of craft books featured at the Lending Desk. Check one out today.
