

Nursery School Showcase Monday October 16th

Nursery school is an important first step in your child's educational life. If you are you looking for the right nursery school for your child, the Children's Department of the Southington Library & Museum has the perfect program to provide you with the information you need without having to travel all around town to get it.

Join the hundreds of parents who have already chosen Southington Library & Museum as the place to find the information they need.

No registration is required for this program. Children are invited to attend with their parents. Light refreshments will be served.

present its third annual Nursery School Showcase. Representatives from Southington's nursery schools will gather together, in the lower level of the library.

Each school will provide information on their individual programs and give parents and children an opportunity to meet their future teachers.

This is a unique opportunity to acquire all the information you need to make the correct decision.

On Monday October 16, 2006 from 9:30 AM to 12:00 PM, the Children's Department is proud to

Tumblebooks a Hit! Try It From Home

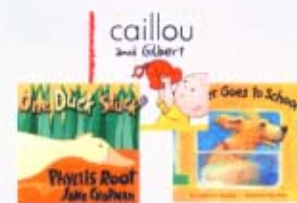

There is something new in the Children's Department and on the library's website. We've added a collection of Tumblebooks.

Tumblebooks are animated, talking, electronic picture books. They include popular books, life learning books and a limited number of books in foreign languages, including Spanish, French and Chinese.

You can access this collection by clicking the Tumblebooks icon on the Southington Library Home page or at one of our eMac game computers in the Children's Department.
